

Attorney Protective State-Specific Premium Relief Measures in Response to COVID-19

(Updated August 28, 2020)

State	Executive Action	Requirements
Arkansas	AR Bulletin 6-2020	Attorney Protective is offering policyholders a grace period until August 17, 2020 to pay outstanding premium payments (applicable to payments originally due on or after March 11, 2020) before policies are cancelled for non-payment of premium.
California	CA Bulletin 2020-3	Attorney Protective is temporarily postponing due dates for outstanding premium payments until July 14, 2020 (applicable to payments originally due on or after March 11, 2020). Attorney Protective is offering certain adversely impacted policyholders premium relief for reductions in practice resulting from the COVID-19 pandemic. Interested policyholders should contact their agent/broker to initiate a request for relief. Click here to read our Notices to California Insureds .
Colorado	CO COVID-19 Regulations	Click here to read our Notices to Colorado Insureds .
Delaware		Attorney Protective is temporarily postponing due dates for outstanding premium payments until July 6, 2020 (applicable to payments originally due on or after March 13, 2020).
District of Columbia		Attorney Protective is temporarily postponing due dates for outstanding premium payments until October 9, 2020 (applicable to payments originally due on or after March 11, 2020). We are offering policyholders experiencing financial hardship due to COVID-19 the choice of paying deferred premiums in 12 equal monthly installments upon expiration of the grace period. We will accept a written attestation from you as proof of financial hardship. Interested policyholders should contact their agent/broker to initiate a payment plan request.
Illinois	IL Company Bulletin 2020-09	Attorney Protective is offering policyholders a grace period until June 30, 2020 to pay outstanding premium payments (applicable to payments originally due on or after March 9, 2020) before policies are cancelled for non-payment of premium.
Louisiana	LA Emergency Rule 40	Attorney Protective is temporarily postponing due dates for outstanding premium payments until June 30, 2020 (applicable to payments originally due on or after March 12, 2020).

State	Executive Action	Requirements
Michigan	Bulletin 2020-16-INS	Attorney Protective is allowing for payment plans for past due premium at the end of an insured's grace period. Upon an insured's request, past due premium will be billed over 6 months in 3 bi-monthly installments. Click here to read our Notices to Michigan Insureds.
New Jersey	NJ Bulletin 20-15	Attorney Protective is offering policyholders a 90-day grace period for premium payments with a choice of beginning retroactively either on April 1, 2020 or on May 1, 2020. This grace period applies to all payments, including renewal down payments and installment payments, as long as policyholders notify us of their wish to continue your coverage with us. Policyholders who elect the 90-day grace period can pay their deferred premiums over: a) the remainder of their current policy term; or b) in 12 equal monthly installments, whichever is longer. Such policyholders should contact their agent/broker to initiate a payment plan request and indicate their preferred grace period start date of April 1st or May 1st. Click here to read our Notices to New Jersey Insureds.
New Mexico		Attorney Protective is allowing insureds to catch up on past due premiums in installments without the loss of coverage. Upon an insured's request, past due premium will be billed over 6 months in 3 bi-monthly installments.
New York	NY Emergency Regulation NY Executive Order 202.13	Attorney Protective is temporarily postponing due dates for outstanding premium payments until July 6, 2020 (applicable to payments originally due on or after March 13, 2020). We are offering policyholders experiencing financial hardship due to COVID-19 the choice of paying deferred premiums in 12 equal monthly installments upon expiration of the grace period. We will accept a written attestation from you as proof of financial hardship. Interested policyholders should contact their agent/broker to initiate a payment plan request. Click here to read our Notices to New York Insureds.
Oklahoma		AttPro has temporarily postponed due dates for outstanding premium payments until August 13, 2020 based upon guidance from the Oklahoma Insurance Department (applicable to payments originally due on or after March 13, 2020), unless otherwise required. Interested policyholders should contact their agent/broker to initiate a request for relief.